

Randy Miller

Randy is originally a Colorado native, then moved to California at 16. He served 4 years in the Air Force and after being honorably discharged got his education and became a Probation Officer with the Santa Barbara County Probation Department.

During his career, he was the “Cal Gangs” entry officer, worked with the Gang Suppression Team, (GST), supervised an adult gang caseload, sex offenders, ran the north county electronic monitoring and county parole program, was a court hearing officer, completed hundreds of juvenile investigations, and filled in as the director for the Counseling and Education Center (CEC), the probation operated county school program.

Having been a martial artist for over 20 years, Randy was a private contractor, teaching use of force, unarmed defensive tactics and arrest and control to other agencies and his department and graduated from the LAPD’s certification program for these classes.

Randy has also developed, received California state certification and taught classes in Report Writing and Employment Needs of Felony Probationers. The employment class specifically designed and taught to Department of Social Services Management personnel.

After retiring, Randy has been involved in local politics as a PC in LD 13 and 21, the Maricopa County Coordinator for the Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association, sat as the Vice Chair for the Surprise Regional Chamber of Commerce's Civic Affairs Committee, having played a key role in the modification of the City of Surprise's False Alarm and Pawn Shop Ordinances and is currently a REALTOR® with Desert Heritage Real Estate.

Randy has been working on Constitutional issues and education for over 4 years as a PC, community activists and as a leader of CSPOA and Oath Keepers.