

Rae Chornenky

Rae Chornenky is a candidate for Chairman of the Maricopa County Republican Party. She is presently Chairman of Legislative District 22 and has been in the practice of law since 1983. Her vast resume includes 2011 President and CEO of the National Federation of Republican Women, the largest grass roots women's political organization in the country. She has also served on the Arizona Superior Court bench, presiding over jury trials and criminal law hearings. She also spent six years as college Adjunct Professor teaching constitutional law, substantive criminal law and evidence.

(Editor's note) LD 22 is the legislative district that includes Sun City West and has been a leader in turning out Republican votes for state, county, and national elections.
